

Carnetta Swann

Carnetta Swann is a Board Member of United Voices of Efland Cheeks and has served for five years. She is a long-time resident of Mebane, NC, and has lived in Orange County for over 70 years. Carnetta is a retired employee of the Orange County Clerk's Office, where she worked for 30 years, and the Frazier and Griffin Law Firm for 15 years. Additionally, she has spent over 30 years as an entrepreneur in catering.

Carnetta is a devoted wife and mother who takes great pride in serving her community and contributing to its growth. She is a member of Mebane's Chapel Holiness Church, where she has served as a financial secretary for many years and was the head cook for more than 30 years. She graduated from Orange County Schools in June 1972 and has been an active board member for over 10 years.

