

Rashonda McAdoo

My name is Rashonda McAdoo, and I work in life insurance and home health care. I am passionate about helping and serving others in both professional roles. I love spending quality time with my family and cherish the bond I share with my two sisters, one of whom is my twin. I love to cook and also serve as the Assistant Treasurer in my community, where I enjoy giving ideas and making a positive difference.

